

About Us

Who We Are

Allied Relocation Services is the Indian based Relocation Service provider that has its branches in various parts of India. We have our centers in all major cities for making our service efficient. We provide various services that include household shifting, packing and moving, relocation services, car carrier services, loading and unloading, logistics and warehousing. We value our customers and hence provide the services with 100% guarantee. We offer services at national level. We have licenses that are required for crossing the borders. These licenses are approved by the Government of India.

Our efficiency is unquestionable. We will provide you the most hassle free services. All our plans and techniques regarding the service delivery are discussed with the customer. The planning of the project site, its management, packing is all told at length beforehand to avoid any confusion. We will provide you these services in the quickest possible time. We have efficient networks and connectivity all across the country.

The prices offered by us are also very competent and reasonable. The inclusions are briefed to the customers before the work. Trust is undoubtedly the highest human felicity and we approve of it. We reflect our care towards you with our efficient work.

Quality Policy

We maintain a tradition in the quality of the service we provide. We are the best in the market to pack your belongings at the shortest time and deliver them by maintaining a tat. The technology, we use to load and unload the goods on the vehicles are the best to protect your belongings from any scratch. By The listing process we maintain for the packs, we confirm that there will be no losses of your belongings and when we handover the entire thing to you, you may check them out by following the very list.

Client Satisfaction

Allied Relocation has been in the field of professional relocation services since more than sixteen years, and in these years, we have successfully helped pack and move corporate offices and individual households. We have presence in almost all cities on India, and we will help you transport your belongings safely to any part of the country that you wish. We take utmost care of your belongings while in transit, which is why we have such a high satisfaction rate among our clients.

Client Satisfaction

Allied Relocation has been in the field of professional relocation services since more than sixteen years, and in these years, we have successfully helped pack and move corporate offices and individual households. We have presence in almost all cities on India, and we will help you transport your belongings safely to any part of the country that you wish. We take utmost care of your belongings while in transit, which is why we have such a high satisfaction rate among our clients.

Vision & Mission

Our vision is as clear as water. We regard trust as the most paramount human felicity and hence we take all measures to ensure trust. We at Allied Relocation Services have teamed up to provide you the most hassle free shifting with a guarantee that your goods will be safe. We ensure you to maintain the quality of goods. Our trucks and loading vehicles have passed the quality checks and we have an authorized license from the government. Allied Relocation Services is an authorized Packers and Movers company that will help you in accomplishing the mission of shifting your home from one location to another. There are many things that build up stress during the shifting purpose. But with Allied Relocation Services and team you can feel extremely stress free. You just hold up the excitement of new place and nostalgia of the older one and we will look after everything else. We will make sure that we shift every single item in its original shape to your new location.

Our mission is to establish Allied relocation services in every big and small cities of India in order to become more efficient and connective. We offer relocation services in many prominent cities of India and look forward to the establishment of our companies in the entire country. The efficient packers and movers have become the necessity in today's transitioning country. Every now and then we need to shift from one place to another and that calls for a trusted and prestigious packers and movers. With Allied Relocation Services you will get the best option available.

Our Team

The importance and growth that our company has attained in the field of logistics services is due to the deep knowledge and commitment of Our Team of sincere and laborious professionals. The professionals working for us are conversant with the process and challenges that are involved in the business of logistics and thus carry out their work with perfection. The loading and unloading of the goods is done with great concern by them so that no harm is done to the consignments. In addition to this, we also have packaging experts, who pack the goods in competent manner.

Our Infrastructure

With a huge fleet of over 1000 well maintained vehicles, our company has naturally become a leading packing and moving service provider. High quality packing material is always available at our various centers. A substantial number of portable home units and Welfare Activities have been procured. For safe and easy loading and unloading, a large number of trolleys, forklifts, portable home units and similar equipment are available. State-of-the-art warehouses have been built for safe storage of goods. Specially designed vehicles are used for car relocation. Substantial investment has been made in computerization and communication services to keep track of the consignments. There is a 24x7 customer care service in place.

Why Us ?

Allied Relocation Services are the best packers and movers across India. We provide facilities in various parts of the country. It is obvious that you would question that why should we choose you.

So here are some of the reasons for why you should choose Allied Relocation services.

- > We are the most safe and trusted company. We take full guarantee of your goods and deliver the best quality work that is appreciable by all our customers.
- > We provide tailored solution for the packing and moving. We have different quality of packing material that we use to pack different genres of material.
- > We provide satisfactory and efficient quality work. The chances of breakage are very less with Allied Relocation Services. We ensure our customers with this quality of ours.
- > We offer free consultation to all our customers regarding their packing and moving to different places. We provide them knowledge of quality of the work with the best and advanced techniques.

Contact Info

📍 Transport Nagar, Alambagh, Lucknow -
226016 (Uttar Pradesh)

☎️ +91 9918331333

☎️ +91 9369638597

✉️ info@alliedrelocation.in

🌐 www.alliedrelocation.com

Our Clientele

ICICI Prudential

IDEA

Indiian Oil

Mahindra

Reliance Fresh

Reliance Group

State bank of India

Aircel